Grammarly's Generative AI

- Compose: Write a few words, and get a draft in seconds.
- Rewrite: Get new versions of your writing right away, adjusted for tone, clarity, or length.
- Personalize Your Voice: Set up custom style settings so the generated text matches how you like to write.
- Reply: When you receive an email, Grammarly analyzes it and suggests quick response options, incorporating details such as the sender's name and intent.
- Ideate: Enter a prompt, and Grammarly will create an outline or ideas.

Grammarly's Generative AI

The image displays three panels from Grammarly's Generative AI interface:

- Top Panel: A blue-bordered box containing the text "Generative AI" and a lightbulb icon. A yellow arrow points to the lightbulb icon.
- Left Panel: A panel titled "Set your voice" with a subtitle "Choose how you want your generated text to sound." and a "Set voice" button. Below it is a section "What do you want to do?" with suggestions: "Improve it", "Identify any gaps", and "More ideas". A text input field at the bottom says "Tell us to...".
- Middle Panel: A panel with a list of actions: "Rewrite" (Improve it), "Evaluate" (Identify any gaps, Give me ideas for improvement, Pick out my main point), "Ideate" (Generate ideas for a blog post, Brainstorm some thought-provoking questions), and "Write" (Write a project progress report, Ask for a favor, Write an engaging introductory email). A text input field at the bottom says "Tell us to...".
- Right Panel: A panel titled "My voice" with settings for "Formality" (Casual, Neutral, Formal), "Tone" (Personable, Confident, Empathetic, Engaging, Witty, Direct), and "Your profession" (Product designer). It also has a "I write in" dropdown set to "American English". A note at the bottom states "These voice settings will apply to any text you generate." and a "Use this voice" button.
